As Salaamu alaikum wa rahmatullaahi wa barakaatuh

We are delighted to see how quickly the children settled back into the routines of school life this week.

In Al Khair Prep School, literacy is incorporated in all of the teaching, reading, writing, speaking and listening and is integral to the school curriculum

It is very important for developing reading and writing to be immersed in a language-rich environment. Therefore, speaking and listening skills are developed across the curriculum through: role play and drama activities; expressing opinions and ideas clearly in full sentences; engaging in thought-provoking discussions; and sharing and enjoying a range of texts.

On Friday 13th September, Al Khair Prep School participated fully in Roald Dahl Day. Children dressed up as their favourite Roald Dahl characters, and enjoyed many activities based on the books, within the classroom.

Presents were handed out for the best costume, and to the classes which had made the most effort, from both KS1 And KS2.

Well done to Year 1B and Year 4B.

Adhan Recitation

Each Week, the school will be asking a child from Years 4,5 and 6 to recite the Adhan before Zohr Salaah and Jumma Salaah. Inshallah all children who have learnt the adhan will be chosen to perform. This fortnight we had

PSHE Lessons in Prep School

As part of our on-going commitment to your children's well-being we have introduced PSHE (Personal, Social and Health Education) lessons. This will help children acquire the knowledge, skills and understanding they need to lead confident, healthy and independent lives. This includes learning about the importance of healthy eating and keeping fit, developing good friendships, online safety, dealing with bullying and lots more life skills. Within an Islamic context children reflect on their experiences and understand how they are developing personally and socially, tackling many of the spiritual, moral, social and cultural issues that are part of growing up.

Arabic in Al khair Prep school

My name is Seloua Izeboudjene and I am the lead of Arabic language, As a lead I am looking for the best resources and techniques to help the children to learn. To encourage fun and interactive lessons,

I opened an account on the website www.alefbata.com, this website has a wide range of interactive learning, worksheets and stories. Both Ks1 and Ks2 are using it in class. KS2 are encouraged to write long essays and use a wide range of vocabulary plus use more Arabic sentences in class.

I created a curriculum for KS2 which will help them for their GCSE in the future, each lesson and worksheets is created especially for their level and their ability as it is tailored exactly to their needs. I also introduced some new techniques to enhance their learning such as, powtoon, movie making and different game such kahoot and Quizlet.

Homework is a very important part of learning and most of the homework will have different levels from low to high to help the less able children and to challenge the more able children. Please encourage your child to complete their homework, on paper or on show my homework. Also use the link that I sent in my recent letter.

Children need to practice more Arabic at home if we want to get them to learn it quickly, also please encourage them to watch (learn with Zakaria) on you tube as most of the vocabularies will be learnt in class and it is a very good way to reinforce it.

A list of greeting vocabulary will be sent home, it will be appreciated if you can use it at home as a family. I would encourage the child to label their things in Arabic. The more Arabic that is around them the more it will be absorbed and learnt easily.

School Notice

Just a reminder to all parents/carers, the school operates a consistent procedure for pupil sickness. If your child has vomited either at home or at school, there is a 48 hour absence period before they will be able to return. It is important that we deliver a consistent approach to sickness absence to minimise the spread of any potential bugs and thank you for your support with this.
