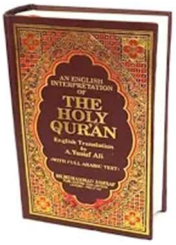
Islamic Studies Overview

Term: Autumn
Year: Year 9G
Teacher: Mrs Jamila Omar



(Picture of the book)

Textbook title:
The Holy Quran translation by Abdel Haleem
Forty Hadith by Imam An-Nawawi

What will we be covering this term?

1st Half Term:
We will start the school year with an introduction to the sciences of Tafsir. After the introductory lesson, the students will study the Tafsir of Surah At-Takathur, Al-Qari'ah, Al-Aadiyat, Zalzalah and Al-Bayyinah.

2nd Half Term:
We will start the second half of the Autumn term with Hadith number 11 from Imam An-Nawawi's collection.

Teacher's Marking Key:
Islamic Studies is focused on learning lessons from the Quran and the teachings of our beloved Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). Work will be set when deemed necessary by the teacher and the standard Al Khair marking policy will be used.

How will my child be assessed this term?

There will be at least two assessed pieces this term.
In more detail;

- At the end of the term, there will summative exam that will test their knowledge for what they covered during the course of the entire term.

How can I help my child in this subject?

- Encouragement, praise, ensuring that they do their homework; and checking the show my homework website regularly.
- Listening to a lecture series together to share and benefit in the knowledge
- Encouraging them to read around the subject.
- Their notes must be in order; discipline is essential.

Resources

The students must make extensive notes in class to aid their revision and homework. The students will also be provided with useful online resources to supplement their studies. For the first term, they can purchase a copy of "Forty Hadith" by Imam An-Nawawi and The Noble Quran by Abdel Haleem. This is an excellent translation of the Quran which children find easy to read and understand.

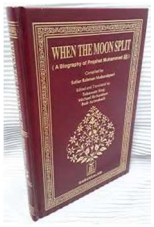
Communications

Who do I contact if I have concerns about my child's progress in this subject?

Please feel free to contact us at the school from 9.00-16:00 if you have any questions or concerns. Alternatively, leave a note in your child's homework diary and we will try to give you a written response on the same day, or contact us by email jamila.omar@alkhairschool.org.uk

Subject Name Overview

Term: Spring
Year: Year 9G
Teacher: Mrs Jamila Omar



(Picture of the book)

Textbook title: When the moon split by Saifur Rahman Mubarakpuri

What will we be covering this term?

1st Half Term:
We will be studying the Fiqh of Fasting and Zakah. There will be an end of half-term written assessment. There will also be a review of the Fiqh of Tahara and Salah.

2nd Half Term:
We will continue to study the Seerah of the prophetﷺ starting from the Battle of the Trench.

There will be an end of term exam based on what students have covered this half-term.

Teacher's Marking Key:
Islamic Studies is focused on learning lessons from the Quran and the teachings of our beloved Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). Work will be set when deemed necessary by the teacher and the standard Al Khair marking policy will be used.

How will my child be assessed this term?

There will be at least two assessed pieces this term.
In more detail;

- At the end of the term, there will summative exam that will test their knowledge for what they covered during the course of the entire term.

How can I help my child in this subject?

- Encouragement, praise, ensuring that they do their homework; and checking the show my homework website regularly.
- Listening to a lecture series together to share and benefit in the knowledge
- Encouraging them to read around the subject.
- Their notes must be in order; discipline is essential.

Resources

The students must make extensive notes in class to aid their revision and homework. The students will also be provided with useful online resources to supplement their studies. The Sealed Nectar and When the Moon Split are books that we highly recommended in order to aid the students' study of the Seerah, and you will find a plethora of resources and lectures around the subject on the internet.

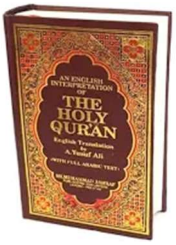
Communications

Who do I contact if I have concerns about my child's progress in this subject?

Please feel free to contact us at the school from 9.00-16:00 if you have any questions or concerns. Alternatively, leave a note in your child's homework diary and we will try to give you a written response on the same day, or contact us by email jamila.omar@alkhairschool.org.uk

Subject Name Overview

Term: Summer
Year: Year 9G
Teacher: Mrs Jamila Omar



(Picture of the book)

Textbook title:
Translation of the Quran.
Children are encouraged to bring their own copies of the translation of the Quran by Abdel Haleem.

What will we be covering this term?

1st Half Term:
We will be studying the story of Prophet Yusuf (A.S). This is one of the most enjoyable stories mentioned in the Quran. The students will focus on learning lessons from this story and the main focus will be to implement these lessons in our lives.

2nd Half Term:
We will continue studying the stories of the Prophets by looking at the story of Ayub (A.S). Towards the end, we will begin the story of Musa (A.S).

Teacher's Marking Key:
Islamic Studies is focused on learning lessons from the Quran and the teachings of our beloved Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). Work will be set when deemed necessary by the teacher and the standard Al Khair marking policy will be used.

How will my child be assessed this term?

There will be at least two assessed pieces this term.
In more detail;

- At the end of the term, there will summative exam that will test their knowledge for what they covered during the course of the entire term.

How can I help my child in this subject?

- Encouragement, praise, ensuring that they do their homework; and checking the show my homework website regularly.
- Listening to a lecture series together to share and benefit in the knowledge
- Encouraging them to read around the subject.
- Their notes must be in order; discipline is essential.

Resources

The students must make extensive notes in class to aid their revision and homework. The students will also be provided with useful online resources to supplement their studies. These topics will be studied mostly through the translation of the Qur'an, therefore, we highly recommend that you purchase a copy of the translation of the Quran by Abdul Haleem. It is a very comprehensive and easily understood translation.

Communications

Who do I contact if I have concerns about my child's progress in this subject?

Please feel free to contact us at the school from 9.00-16:00 if you have any questions or concerns. Alternatively, leave a note in your child's homework diary and we will try to give you a written response on the same day, or contact us by email jamila.omar@alkhairschool.org.uk