How will my child be assessed this term?

There will be two official assessment pieces over the whole term including the End of Term exam; therefore, class participation is most necessary.

Assessment is used to support teaching and learning by identifying what students already knows and how they might move to the next level/grade.

Therefore, these assessments are designed to enable students and teachers to develop an understanding of their individual needs so that meaningful target can be made.

How can I help my child in this subject?

- Encouragement, praise, ensuring that they do their homework.
- Students should read 'An Inspector Calls' at home. Students should supplement class analysis by reading around the subject, focusing on context when at home. They should familiarise themselves with Spark Notes and other revision guides.
- Their notes must be in order; discipline is essential.
- They should read a newspaper regularly. They can read online versions of daily newspapers such as the Guardian or visit news websites such as the BBC.
- Encourage your child to take part in the Word of the Week and the reading challenges. Students should aim for a wide reading diet including different genres of fiction and non-fiction texts to improve comprehension skills, as well as exposure to a variety of styles and techniques of writing.
- Furthermore, students must be aware that there is no time to relax: GCSEs require focus and dedication.
- Students should regularly organise and review their notes.
- Create an autonomous attitude towards their studies.
