

Qur'an Annual Overview

Year: Year 11
Teacher: Mr Muhammad Ziyad & Mrs Jamila Omar

What will we be covering this term?

Year 11 students will be reciting the last three Ajza, collectively, as a revision of what they have already memorised over the previous years.

The students will be given three pages to revise for the first half of the lesson and then they will recite those pages from memory, one verse each. The teacher will correct the mistakes and aim to improve Tajweed.

For those students who have strong Hifz, they will have to recite from memory when it is their turn.

How will my child be assessed this term?

The Quran assessment is based on three aspects: Strength of Hifz, Tajweed and style of recitation.

In more detail;

- The students will have to revise a surah of their choice and recite at least half a page of it from memory.

How can I help my child in this subject?

- Encouragement, praise, ensuring that they do their Hifz; and checking the diary for weekly updates to see which surah they are supposed to be memorising.
- Spend some time daily listening to the Quran
- Listen to your child's recitation.
- Read through the translation of the surah your child is memorising collectively with the family. Discuss the lessons that can be learned and encourage each other to implement those in daily life.

Resources

- To help with memorisation, all students are encouraged to listen to a reciter they choose themselves.
- The translation of the Quran by Abdul Haleem is a must have. It is very easy to understand.
- In order to have a much deeper understanding of the Quran, there are lots of Tafsir lectures available on youtube. A good starting point for this would be "Tafsir of Juz Amma by Noman Ali Khan" (YouTube).
- There is a famous saying about Hifz.. "there are as many ways to memorise Quran as there are Huffaz". Keeping this in mind, there is an excellent series on youtube called "Traveller with the Quran" by Fahd Al Kendari. He visits different countries, interviewing children of all abilities to shows how they have spent their lives with the Quran. Watching this series has been a real eye opener for not just students, but parents alike.
